

SERVICE MANAGER

GET HELP FROM A SERVICE MANAGER

A Service Manager is responsible for training, administration and development of the service. You as a customer are always in the focus to ensure the highest possible customer satisfaction.

WITH YOUR BUSINESS IN FOCUS

For Dstny's Service Managers, you as a customer are always in focus. Training, management and development are parts of our daily tasks where proactive solutions will help keep you satisfied with the services we provide. Our Service Managers therefore have overall responsibility for you as a customer throughout the contract period.

KEEPING TRACK OF DAILY OPERATIONS

We know that long-term relationships benefit both us as a supplier and you as a customer. We know that the personal contact is essential for a satisfied customer. That's why our Service Managers are committed to your daily operations and your needs. Our goal is to meet your needs even before you become aware of it yourself.
